THE TC GRANTS LEAVE TO PROCEED TO THE APPEAL LODGED BY THE ANDALUSIAN GOVERNMENT AGAINST THE ELECTRICITY SECTOR ACT

The Plenary Meeting of the Spanish Constitutional Court has granted leave to proceed to the constitutionality appeal lodged by the Government of Andalusia, against several sections of Act 24/2013, of 26 December, on the Electricity Sector.

The Court has resolved to serve notice of the claim to the Congress, to the Senate, and to the Government, which have been granted a term of fifteen days in which to appear as party to these proceedings and submit their pleadings.

The granting of leave to proceed does not entail any decision whatsoever on the merits of the appeal, which the Court will examine shortly.
