INFORMATION NOTE No. 71/2015

THE TC GRANTS LEAVE TO PROCEED TO THE GOVERNMENT'S UNCONSTITUTIONALITY APPEAL AGAINST THE ARAGÓN ACT ON WATER RESOURCES AND RIVERS

The Plenary Meeting of the Spanish Constitutional Court has granted leave to proceed to the unconstitutionality appeal lodged by the Government against several provisions of Aragón Act 10/2014, of 27 November, on Water Resources and Rivers.

The Court has resolved to serve notice of the foregoing appeal to the Congress, to the Senate, and to the General Deputation of Aragón and Parliament of Aragón, which have been granted a term of fifteen days in which to appear as party to these proceedings and submit their pleadings.

The Plenary Meeting of the TC has also agreed to automatically suspend the challenged rule given that the Government's has upheld in its Article 161.2 of the Spanish Constitution ("The Government may contest before the Constitutional Court the provisions and resolutions adopted by bodies of the Autonomous Communities. A challenge will entail suspension of the contested provision or resolution, but the Court must either ratify or lift the suspension, as the case may be, within a maximum of five months").

The granting of leave to proceed does not entail any decision whatsoever on the merits of the appeal, which the Court will examine shortly.
