THE TC GRANTS LEAVES TO PROCEED TO THE APPEAL BROUGHT BY THE VALENCIAN GOVERNMENT AGAINST THE 2016 GENERAL STATE BUDGETS ACT

The Plenary Meeting of the Constitutional Court (TC) has granted leave to proceed to the unconstitutionality appeal brought by the Government of the Valencia Generalitat against several articles of Act 48/2015, of 29 October, approving General State Budgets for the 2016 budgetary year.

The Court has resolved to serve notice of the foregoing appeal to the Congress, to the Senate and the Government, which have been granted a term of fifteen days in which to appear as party to these proceedings and submit their pleadings.

The granting of leave to proceed does not entail any decision whatsoever on the merits of the appeal, which the Court will examine shortly.
