THE TC GRANTS LEAVE TO PROCEED TO THE APPEAL BROUGHT BY THE CATALONIAN GOVERNMENT AGAINST THE ACT REGULATING THE SPANISH CIVIL PROTECTION SYSTEM

The Plenary Meeting of the Constitutional Court (TC) has granted leave to proceed to the unconstitutionality appeal filed by the Catalanian Government against various articles of Act 17/2015, of 9 July, on the Spanish Civil Protection System.

The Court has resolved to serve notice of the foregoing appeal to the Congress of Deputies, to the Senate and to the Government, which have been granted a term of fifteen days in which to appear as parties to the suit and present their pleadings.

The granting of leave to proceed does not entail any decision whatsoever on the merits of the case, which the Court will examine shortly.
