PRESS RELEASE No. 87/2017

THE CONSTITUTIONAL COURT GRANTS LEAVE TO PROCEED TO THE ACTION OF UNCONSTITUTIONALITY BROUGHT BY UNIDOS PODEMOS AGAINST THE MODIFICATION OF THE LAW ON FREE LEGAL AID

The Plenary Session of the Constitutional Court has granted leave to proceed to the action of unconstitutionality lodged by the Confederal Parliamentary Group Unidos Podemos-En Comú Podem-En Marea against several provisions of Law 2/2017, dated June 21st, modifying Law 1/1996, dated January 10th, on Free Legal Aid.

The Court resolved to communicate the application to the Congress of Deputies, to the Senate and to the Government, which will have fifteen days to join the proceedings as parties and to submit their arguments.

The admission of the appeal does not imply any ruling by anticipation on the substance of the appeal, which will be decided by the Court at a later date.
